The Bereavement
Journey
a place to talk

Thurs 22 May 19:45 - 21:15 Whitehouse Presbyterian

Alongside offers an opportunity to be encouraged and envisioned as to how your congregation could develop a ministry that makes a positive difference to the lives of children, young people and families in your community. By joining with others, we can move beyond our feelings of powerlessness to be present for Jesus in the lives of others.

Short presentations from these organisations will provide ideas and opportunities to develop a collaborative and compassionate ministry in and for your community:

- Thrive Academy
- Eden Consultancy NI
- Transforming Lives for Good
- Aspire NI

The Presbyterian Children's Society will share possibilities for grant funding for congregational projects which are centred around children and young people, and which illustrate the importance of practically supporting families in need.

Come along if you want to move from that feeling of 'what can we do' to a sense of 'we could do that'!

For those going to university

For further information go to this link FLUX

Scripture Union NI and Christian Union Ireland are joining together to run an event to support and prepare you for your next steps into University.

On Saturday 14th June 9:30am - 1pm at the HUB, 22 Elmwood Ave, SUNI and CUI invite you to join them at FLUX, an event to inspire, equip and connect anyone going to University next year, whether that's at home or away.

With worship, workshops, small groups and panels answering questions such as how do I make new friends? What happens if I don't get my first choice? What support can I get from my CU or University? Ric Hill, CAP, Made for More, SU and many more will be there on the day.

Could you help, please?

Providing Christian Literature in areas of need

Many thanks to Brian Smyth who has faithfully delivered many boxes of Christian books, Bibles and literature on our behalf over the years. These go to others in Africa or Asia.

Brian would dearly like to hand the baton over to another willing volunteer(s).

Books are gathered in the church office and delivered to The Haven in Templepatrick when there is a manageable load.

If you can help, even occasionally, please contact the church office or speak to Brian who would be happy to explain the details. Thank you.

Trip to The Revival Movement Printing Works

Monday 1st September in the evening

Samuel Adams spoke at Mission Focus last year about the work of The Revival Movement. All printing of their literature takes place in Dromore. Our Mission Focus team is organising a trip to visit the printing works on the evening of Monday 1st Sept when the evenings are still light.

Everyone is welcome and we'd really love you to come.

If interested, please sign the sheet in the vestibule or speak to Drew, Sharon, Margaret or Rosalind for further details. Some of us have been before and say it's a fantastic, worthwhile trip. Please join us! We'd love to be able to organise a coach-load of us.
