Logos Hope is an ocean-going ship with the world's largest floating bookfair, offering over 5,000 titles. The ship also hosts cultural events and community programmes.

Logos Hope is staying in Belfast approximately 4 weeks. She arrives 1st October and departs 21st October 2026.

You do not need to register to visit Logos Hope (unless attending a specific event). Just come as you are!

Logos Hope is open to visitors during the following hours:

Open to the public from 2nd October at 1pm

Tuesday - Saturday: 10am - 10pm

Sunday: 1pm - 10pm

Closed to the public: Mondays

The crew is excited to welcome you onboard; while you are there there's plenty to discover!

- Browse and buy books from diverse genres, with something for all the family
- Enjoy cultural performances and interactive displays
- Visit the Hope Café for snacks and drinks
- Attend youth and young adult events, workshops, worship and prayer nights, conferences or seminars, and loads more!

an evening with Libby Russell, good company, great chat and a cuppa.
All women welcome - and bring a pal.

Safeguarding Training

The next Safeguarding Training within our Presbytery is:

Woodlands - Tuesday 13th October at 7.30pm

The process for booking your spot has now changed. We cannot provide a sign-up sheet anymore.

Those attending must book their own spot via Eventbrite on the PCI website. Here is the link:

<https://presbyterianireland.org/safeguarding>

All leaders and helpers must train every three years. If you're unsure of your last training date, please contact the church office.

If you attend training you must let Jennifer or Rosalind know so that we can update our records. Thank you.

Cecil will be on annual leave 20th - 26th September.
